

APPLICATION FOR VARIANCE

Now comes Shawn and Becky Ringler Endsley, Applicants, who requests permission from the Hopkins County Commissioners Court for a variance from the County Subdivision Rules and Regulations.

Applicant makes this Variance Application to resolve practical difficulties or unnecessary physical hardships that have resulted from the size, shape, dimensions, or other physical conditions of the location or in the immediate vicinity of the property described in the attached exhibit.

Specifically, Applicant requests the Variance for the following reasons:

A communication cooperation has placed a utility storage unit on a section of the road frontage located at 220 CR 2174 resulting in a decrease of the required 200 feet.
